STONYHURST
NEWSLETTER

From the Principal

Dear Parents,

Welcome to the April edition of the Stonyhurst International School newsletter. As you are aware we have completed our recruitment of expatriate teaching staff and are now recruiting local members of our academic faculty and support staff. We have managed to appoint some superb staff from the local community and we will be sharing their profiles with you in the future. Our local staff is a critical part of our teaching community as they ensure that the school is able to reflect Malaysian cultural values which is one of our guiding principles.

Sin Yee Ng – Director of Admissions and Marketing

To Risk or Not to Risk?

Risk' is a word that few parents enjoy contemplating. After all, whether it's realistic or not, we instinctively want to protect our kids from all forms of potential harm. Whilst this type of parental care is nothing new, experts today worry that parents are becoming overly risk-averse.
